1 — Rage

You can enter a rage as a Bonus Action if you aren't wearing Heavy armor. You regain one expended use when you finish a Short Rest, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a Long Rest. While active, your Rage follows the rules below.

- You have Resistance to Bludgeoning, Piercing, and Slashing damage.
- When you make an attack using Strength and deal damage to the target, you deal extra damage equal to your Rage Damage.
- You have Advantage on Strength checks and Strength saving throws.
- You can't maintain Concentration, and you can't cast spells.

Duration The Rage lasts until the end of your next turn, and it ends early if you don Heavy armor or have the Incapacitated condition. If your Rage is still active on your next turn, you can extend the Rage for another round by doing one of the following:
- Make an attack roll against an enemy.
- Force an enemy to make a saving throw.
- Take a Bonus Action to extend your Rage.

You can maintain a Rage for up to 10 minutes.

1 — Unarmored Defense

While you aren't wearing any armor, your base Armor Class equals 10 plus your Dexterity and Constitution modifiers. You can use a Shield and still gain this benefit.

1 — Weapon Mastery

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of two kinds of Simple or Martial Melee weapons of your choice. Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can practice weapon drills and change one of those weapon choices. The number of masteries increases to 3 at level 4 and 4 at level 10.

2 — Danger Sense

You have Advantage on Dexterity saving throws unless you have the Incapacitated condition.

2 — Reckless Attack

When you make your first attack roll on your turn, you can decide to attack recklessly. Doing so gives you Advantage on attack rolls using Strength until the start of your next turn, but attack rolls against you have Advantage during that time.

3

3 — Primal Knowledge

While your Rage is active, whenever you make an ability check using one of the following skills, you can make it as a Strength check even if it normally uses a different ability: Acrobatics, Intimidation, Perception, Stealth, or Survival.

4

5 — Extra Attack

You can attack twice instead of once whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

5 — Fast Movement

Your speed increases by 10 feet while you aren't wearing Heavy armor.
