CLASS FEATURES

Spellcasting (1)

You regain all spell slots when you finish a Long Rest.
Charisma is your spellcasting ability for your Sorcerer spells.

Innate Sorcery (1)

As a Bonus Action, you can unleash that magic for 1 minute, during which you gain the following benefits:

The spell save DC of your Sorcerer spells increases by 1.
You have Advantage on attack rolls of Sorcerer spells you cast.
You can use this feature twice, and you regain all expended uses of it when you finish a Long Rest.

Font of Magic (2)

You have Sorcery Points equal to your sorcerer level. You can't have more Sorcery Points than your sorcerer level. You regain all expended Sorcery Points when you finish a Long Rest. You can use your Sorcery Points to fuel the options below, along with other features, such as Metamagic, that use those points.

You can expend a spell slot to gain a number of Sorcery Points equal to the slot's level (no action required).

As a Bonus Action, you can transform unexpended Sorcery Points into one spell slot. The Creating Spell Slots table shows the cost of creating a spell slot of a given level, and it lists the minimum Sorcerer level you must be to create a slot.
Any spell slot you create with this feature vanishes when you finish a Long Rest.
Spell slot level => Sorcery point cost (Min. Sorcerer level)
1 => 2 (2) | 2 => 3 (3) | 3 => 5 (5) | 4 => 6 (7) | 5 => 7 (9)

Metamagic (2)

You gain two Metamagic options of your choice. You use the chosen options to temporarily modify spells you cast. To use an option, you must spend the number of Sorcery Points that it costs.
You can use only one Metamagic option on a spell when you cast it unless otherwise noted in one of those options.
Whenever you gain a Sorcerer level, you can replace one of your Metamagic options with one you don't know. You gain two more options at Sorcerer level 10 and two more at Sorcerer level 17.

Metamagic Options (2)

(4)

Sorcerous Restoration (5)

When you finish a Short Rest, you can regain expended Sorcery Points, but no more than a number equal to half your Sorcerer level (round down). Once you use this feature, you can't do so again until you finish a Long Rest.
