Personality

Nieuwsgierig, impulsief, chaotisch, enthousiast en goedhartig

A really big fascination with fire

Wants to understand how basically everything works, but especially how magic really works

Backstory

Ze komt uit een familie van geleerden en onderzoeker, zij heeft alleen een andere manier van aanpak. Ze wilt weten hoe alles werkt en ontdekt dit door het te doen, ookal is ze hierbij alleen vreselijk impulsief wat tot soms wat onhandige situaties en uitkomsten leidt. Ze heeft een grote fascinatie met vuur, hoe het ontstaan, het effect, explosiviteit/brandbaarheid (basically een pyromaan)

Om haar kennis op te doen is ze gaan werken in een magische bibliotheek en is ze hulpe van grote wizard geweest die haar veel geleerd hebben. Ze is een soort verstrooide magische wetenschapper.

Ze woonde altijd al in Balder's gate. Ze heeft gehoord van de death curse en heeft er wel theoretisch onderzoek naar gedaan maar kwam nergens op uit waarom de doden niet herrezen konden worden, dit maakt haar alleen maar meer nieuwsgierig naar het antwoord en dit kan ze onmogelijk negeren. Ik denk dat ze zo bij de groep is gekomen.

CLASS FEATURES

Spellcasting

Cantrips

Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can replace one of your cantrips from this feature with another Wizard cantrip of your choice.

Spellbook

Your wizardly apprenticeship culminated in the creation of a unique book: your spellbook. It is a Tiny object that weighs 3 pounds, contains 100 pages, and can be read only by you or someone casting Identify. You determine the book's appearance and materials, such as a gilt-edged tome or a collection of vellum bound with twine.

Spell Slots

The Wizard Features table shows how many spell slots you have to cast your level 1+ spells. You regain all expended slots when you finish a Long Rest.

Changing Your Prepared Spells

Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change your list of prepared spells, replacing any of the spells there with spells from your spellbook.

Spellcasting Ability

Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for your Wizard spells.

Spellcasting Focus

You can use an Arcane Focus or your spellbook as a Spellcasting Focus for your Wizard spells.

Ritual Adept

You can cast any spell as a Ritual if that spell has the Ritual tag and the spell is in your spellbook. You needn't have the spell prepared, but you must read from the book to cast a spell in this way.

Arcane Recovery

When you finish a Short Rest, you can choose expended spell slots to recover. The spell slots can have a combined level equal to no more than half your Wizard level (round up), and none of the slots can be level 6 or higher.

Once you use this feature, you can't do so again until you finish a Long Rest.

Evocation Savant

Choose two Wizard spells from the Evocation school, each of which must be no higher than level 2, and add them to your spellbook for free.

In addition, whenever you gain access to a new level of spell slots in this class, you can add one Wizard spell from the Evocation school to your spellbook for free.

Potent Cantrip

Your damaging cantrips affect even creatures that avoid the brunt of the effect. When you cast a cantrip at a creature and you miss with the attack roll or the target succeeds on a saving throw against the cantrip, the target takes half the cantrip's damage (if any) but suffers no additional effect from the cantrip.

Memorize Spell

Whenever you finish a Short Rest, you can study your spellbook and replace one of the level 1+ Wizard spells you have prepared for your Spellcasting feature with another level 1+ spell from the book.

Sculpt Spells

You can create pockets of relative safety within the effects of your evocation. When you cast an Evocation spell that affects other creatures that you can see, you can choose a number of them equal to 1 plus the spell's level. The chosen creatures automatically succeed on their saving throws against the spell, and they take no damage if they would normally take half damage on a successful save.

Empowered Evocation

Whenever you cast a Wizard spell from the Evocation school, you can add your Intelligence modifier to one damage roll of that spell.
